CHINESE LAUNCH OFFENSIVE ON TIENTSIN-PUKOW RAILWAY FRONT

HANKOW AND WUCHANG AIR RAIDS FAILURE

Japanese Squadrons Rain Bombs Without Success

Hankow, March 27. After many weeks of absence, Japanese planes again raided Hankow and Wuchang in the early afternoon when over 50 Japanese planes (some sources report over 70) bombed the Hankow and Wuchang aerodromes and also the Canton-Hankow Railway station at Hsuehchun, near Wuchang, in several groups.

The alarm was sounded at 2.15 p.m. when Japanese planes were sighted en route to Hankow from Anhwei Province, and Chinese planes on the field at Hankow aerodrome immediately took off.

Twenty minutes later Japanese bombers, escorted by pursuit planes, simultaneously bombed Hankow and Wuchang aerodromes and also Hsuehchun station.

Heavy anti-aircraft fire greeted the raiders but no hits were registered.

NO DAMAGE DONE

No damage was done to the Hankow and Wuchang aerodromes, though a big fire was started at the Hsuehchun railway station, setting ablaze the station buildings and also the coolies' dwellings nearby.

Reuter's correspondent was standing 200 yards away from the Hankow aerodrome when nearly a hundred bombs were dropped there. After the clouds of dust had settled down no fire was visible on the airfield, only the runway being slightly damaged. (Reuter).

100 KILLED

Hankow, March 27. Hundreds of bombs were rained around the aerodrome in Hankow and at Yuchiatow and Hsuehchun in Wuchang where the railway station is situated.

At Yuchiatow about 100 civilians were killed and 150 wounded, and many houses were demolished. The place was strewn with mangled bodies and ruins. (Central News).

BANQUET IN HONOUR OF PHILIPPINE OFFICIAL

Successful Function At The Hong Kong Hotel

A very successful banquet, in honour of Hon. Eulogio Rodriguez, Secretary of Agriculture and Commerce of the Philippines Commonwealth, was given by Mr. Chen Mo-hua at the Hong Kong Hotel on Friday night when many of the Colony's leading Chinese business men attended.

In the course of the evening the guest of honour made a brief but very interesting speech in which he made reference to the Philippine Commonwealth Government.

Hon. Rodriguez's Speech

Gentlemen of the Hong Kong Business Community:—

I am greatly gratified and honoured for this demonstration of courtesy and attention on the part of the business elements of this community. I want to thank you all from the bottom of my heart and at the same time take advantage of your indulgence and say a few words about the Philippine Commonwealth Government as well as to make a remark on my impressions on Hong Kong.

Gentlemen, this is my first visit to this beautiful place, and I greatly admire the great progress attained by Hong Kong. I can very well see that this is neither an agricultural nor industrial province and that it owes its prominence and importance for being the centre for transportation facilities in the Asiatic east coast, and no boat can ply to or from any eastern seaport without making a call on Hong Kong.

CHINESE WOMAN SPY EXECUTED

Canton, March 27.

A woman spy of only nineteen years of age, Miss Lu Yu-chun, was executed yesterday after thorough investigation by the military authorities. The statement announcing her execution disclosed that she cultivated the acquaintance of army officers in order to seek military information.

The Mats Hari came from Yindien in south Kwangtung.

It is believed that she was a student here some months ago and could speak several dialects. (International).

Major D. H. Steers

PRESENTATION AT RIFLE ASSN.

Well over two hundred riflemen turned out at the Rifle Range yesterday to bid farewell to Major Steers, retiring honorary secretary of the Hong Kong Rifle Association. Major Steers is leaving by the troopship Dilwara on April 4.

At the conclusion of the monthly Sunday shoot, which took place earlier in the morning and in which keen competition was seen among the competitors, Colonel Irwin called upon the Hon. Mr. T. H. King to present Major Steers with a silver model of the Clubhouse on behalf of the Association in appreciation of Major Steers' good work on behalf of the Association. Names of several prominent members of the Association were engraved on the model.

MR. KING'S SPEECH

In making the presentation Mr. King said:—
Major Steers and gentlemen—I feel I have a difficult task in attempting adequately to convey to Major Steers our high appreciation of all he has done for us, and our regret that he has to leave us. I am reassured by the thought that the presence of so many members at this function will compensate for any deficiencies of mine.

It must be no secret to you that in Hong Kong, it is very difficult to find honorary secretaries—and I emphasize the word "honorary"—especially for a society or an association which promises real work. I am equally sure that Major Steers, from his previous experience, had no delusions about what he was undertaking when he consented to

Hanchwang Reoccupied

Japanese Forces Retire In Direction Of Licheng

CRACK CENTRAL GOVERNMENT TROOPS TAKING PART

Hankow, March 27.

The first Chinese general offensive was launched against the Japanese on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway front yesterday and is proceeding well, according to latest reports from the fighting line reaching here.

Crack Central Government troops are engaged in the counter-offensive.

They are assisted by the newly arrived organized artillery and mechanized units equipped with the latest types of heavy field pieces, tanks and armoured cars.

The central column operating in the Tientsin-Pukow Railway zone under the command of General Sun Lien-chung is stated to have crossed the Grand Canal today and reoccupied Hanchwang, which the Japanese captured on March 19 after a severe engagement.

The Japanese forces are now said to be retiring northward along the railway in the direction of Licheng.

Eastward of the central column, another Chinese force, under General Tang Eng-po, who defended Nankow Pass earlier in the hostilities, is stated also to have recrossed the Grand Canal where the Tientsin-Pukow Railway passes the Canal and will be now engaging the Japanese forces in the vicinity of Tientsin and Tsaochang.

Further east still, reinforcements are now rushed to Lingyi where the Chinese garrison is being beleaguered by the Japanese advance on that point. Gunfire is audible from Lingyi.

At the same time Chinese reinforcements are being sent up hurriedly to Kweichow, west of Hsuehchow, and Kaileng further west. This follows receipt of reports that the Japanese are sending eight fresh divisions to the western sector of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway fighting which, it is understood, will be concentrated in the area between the railway and the line where the Yellow River flows northward between Honan and Shantung.

It is believed here that following their stalemate on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, the Japanese will now attempt to force their own way down this area and capture Kweichow as this would have the effect of dividing the Chinese forces now at Hsuehchow and Chengchow.

COMBINED ATTACKS

Another theory is that the Japanese will try to achieve the same object, either separately or by means of combined attacks by crossing the Yellow River further west and recapture Kaileng. As it is by way of a preliminary for this last drive, news has just been received here of a new offensive by Japanese troops on the north bank of the Yellow River opposite Kaileng.

In this, it is learned here, that they attacked the Chinese defenders of Changchuan, north-east of Kaileng across the river, and after forty-eight hours of bitter fighting reached the walls and entered the city through the north gate. One company of the Chinese defenders of the town were wiped out in this engagement.

As yet, however, there is no news of any attempt to cross the river in this area. It would appear, therefore, that the Japanese operations are more in the nature of mopping-up operations prior to attempting the crossing in the not very distant future. (Reuter).

CHINESE RECAPTURE KWANGTEH

Hankow, March 27.

Kwangteh, in Anhwei province on the border of Chekiang, which the Japanese occupied at the beginning of last week following an encircling movement from Hsuehchow, Hangchow and Wuhu, was recaptured by the Chinese yesterday, it is claimed here.

Receiving reinforcements the Chinese began a counter-offensive against Kwangteh on Friday, and claim to have forced the Japanese to retire in the direction of Szean. (Reuter).

Get rid of Disfiguring
Blemishes
this Easy Way

Nothing can be more distracting to a woman than ugly pimples, burning irritations or patches of blackheads or enlarged pores on the face or neck. Some resort to heavy powdering in an effort to hide them; whilst others cause the skin to become muddy-looking, coarse and blemished by using the wrong treatment.

To make your skin clear and healthy, to cleanse clogged facial pores, remove blackheads and pimples and to make your complexion clearer and smoother, use Cuticura.

Cleanse the skin with Cuticura Soap twice a day. Its luxuriant and mildly antiseptic lather is soothing and softening; washes away pore-deep dirt which causes blackheads, enlarged pores and ugly complexion defects.

To rid the skin of pimples, skin outbreaks, rashes or irritations use Cuticura Ointment direct on the affected part before washing with the soap. Its antiseptic action kills germs, soothes and heals and quickly clears the skin.

VOLUNTEER PORTUGUESE COMPANIES GATHER AT CLUB LUSITANO FOR ANNUAL DINNER AND DANCE

The Portuguese Company of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps was reorganised into two units during the past year, the first being the Anti-Aircraft Company and the other the No. 5 Machine Gun Company, consisting at present of two platoons.

Reference to this was made by Major S. Jarvis, M. C. Officer Commanding, the annual dinner of the Portuguese Companies held at the Club Lusitano on Saturday night.

"Our strength this year is seven officers and 156 other ranks," remarked Major Jarvis, in his speech. "This may seem a loss but is in reality a gain. To be in the fashion we have had a purge."

Major Jarvis, in the course of a comprehensive survey of the Companies' activities during the period under review paid warm tribute to Capt. J. V. V. Remedios and Lieut. H. J. Silva, who had been among the hardest working members of the Unit in many capacities.

This year a good many Portuguese volunteers had joined the Hong Kong Rifle Association. "I think that the Rifle Association is of great help to us in augmenting facilities for shooting which were so sadly lacking in the past," commented the speaker.

Major Jarvis expressed regret at the impending departure of Lieut-Col. R. C. B. Anderson, M. C. Commandant of the H.K.V.D.C., whom the speaker regarded as the link between regulars and volunteers which was so necessary if misunderstanding was to be avoided. Col. Anderson's departure, he said, will leave a gap the authorities will find hard to fill.

After the toasts of the King and the President of Portugal had been honoured, Major Jarvis, addressing the gathering, said:—

Gentlemen.—Since our last annual dinner one of our members, Private E. M. Sequeira has passed on. According to our usual custom, I will ask you to stand for a moment in silence as a mark of respect.

Colonel Anderson and gentlemen—there is an old saying which refers to the frequency with which the pageantry of the Lord Mayor's show is followed by the humble and homely atmosphere of the sanitary wagon.

I am not of course making any rude references to the present gathering, but thinking of the fact that after the last annual dinner which was our 10th anniversary celebration, this one has in many ways seemed to be a descent from the sublime to the ridiculous.

Not only have I been deprived, in finding the material for my speech, of the historical and rhetorical possibilities of last year but several of the events in which this Unit has been wont to shine have not taken place during the year.

STIRRING TIME

The past year has been a stirring time in more senses than one. The Portuguese Company has been stirred and stirred. Having been re-organized twice, during the year the dish which has now emerged from the boiling pot consists of two units.

The first is an anti-aircraft company under the command of Mr. Sequeira, whose long period of excellent work resulted in his well deserved promotion to the rank of Captain. The second unit is No. 5 Machine Gun Company, consisting at present of two platoons. At a recent Company dinner the Officer in command referred to his Company in a witty succession of similes as the baby of another unit. We prefer to think of No. 5 M.G. Company as having sprung fully armed from the skull of its progenitor as Pallas Athene did from the brain pan of Zeus.

Sergeant Ribeiro was commissioned and appointed to the command of one of the M.G. platoons. In which capacity he carries out his duties in the same keen and able manner for which he has always been noted.

This record of service was recognized this year by the award to him of the Coronation medal.

GAIN IN STRENGTH

Our strength this year is 7 officers and 156 other ranks. This may seem a loss but is in reality a gain. To be in the fashion we have had a purge. We have got rid of a good deal of waste matter and if some of the individuals concerned care to continue the analogy, I make no apology for the cap thus offered.

Some of the reduction should however be referred to in happier terms. Captain Remedios, the old faithful, and Lt. Silva having been translated to less active spheres. These two officers have been amongst the hardest working members of the Unit in many capacities and their influence even now is and I am sure will continue to be exerted on its behalf.

Parades have been well-attended; the highest being 124 and the average over 25 parades being 89.

SHOOTING SUCCESS

With regard to shooting—the Interport Cup was won by this Unit last year when Hong Kong beat Shanghai with a total of 579 to Shanghai 573. This year we have fared off but, owing to the difficult conditions in Shanghai, it is doubtful if our worthy opponents will have an opportunity of showing their skill. I would like this opportunity to assure Major Lettao and his Unit of our admiration for the excellent work done in Shanghai and to hope that their duties will not be so onerous in the future.

On Sunday, February 27, we had a most excellent day for our Company competitions, and whereas in the past I have complained that the successes in our competitions have usually been confined to a few, I wish to say that it has been very clear this year that we have a solid middle piece and I congratulate the unit on this improvement. The Corps Rifle Meeting has not yet been held but I have high hopes that the unit will repeat the successes of former years.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

This year a good many of our men have joined the Rifle Association. They have been helped in this by the energy of Capt. Sequeira who has produced ammunition from up his sleeves like a conjuror in order to encourage keen shots.

I think that the Rifle Association, so long as our men remember they are volunteers and armed with a service rifle, is of great help to us in augmenting facilities for shooting which were so sadly lacking in the past.

To conclude my remarks about shooting, I congratulate the Company Musketry Board on the results of their hard work this year.

Thanks to the efforts of Col. Crewdson the Anti-Aircraft Company have been able this year to carry out A.A. shoots on the range at Lyemun and also on two occasions at D'Agulhar, when R.A.F. personnel have taken their lives in their hands towing a sleeve for our benefit. These shoots have given a much better idea of the requirements of A.A. defence training. I must say here, however, that I am disappointed with the numbers turning out for these shoots and hope that more use will be made of future opportunities.

CAMP WORK

With regard to Camp, I think this year there was more solid work done than at any time before. The A.A. Company were trained in the new methods necessitated by the greater speed of modern aircraft. We had a most interesting and instructive demonstration of dive bombing during the training of the Anti-Aircraft Company and the newly formed M.G. Company was able to put forth a more concentrated effort in their initial training than would have been possible at any other time.

During the summer we took part in tactical exercises both with and without troops which proved most instructive.

At the Combined Operations this year only the M.G. Company were called upon to take part. The numbers available were nothing like sufficient to man the posts allotted to us. We are asked to man them all, the teams being regarded as skeletons. However, skeletons or ghosts are quite incapable of humping heavy guns and necessities over miles of goat tracks and the teams were made up by members of the A.A. Company who to their lasting credit were willing to come along as mere "low numbers" and see something of the work of M.G.'s in defensive positions.

AMUSING INCIDENT

Col. Irwin will no doubt say more than I would care to do as to the work done during the operation's but I would like to recount an amusing incident. The officer in charge at Tytan Bungalow, having successfully held up the enemy on his left front, was taking steps to deal with a further development on his right front when an umpire told him he was now blasted out of his position by trench-mortars etc., which had been brought up by the enemy. He gently indicated to the umpire that no doubt his side could do the same sort of thing and objected to having to submit so tamely.

It reminded me of the story of the man sitting for his mate's ticket. The examiner asked him what he would do if when at anchor a strong gale got up and the anchor began to drag. He said he would let go another anchor. The examiner increased the wind speed and the examinee produced another anchor until the examiner said "I say where are you getting all those anchors?" and the would-be mate replied "the same place as you are getting all your ruddy wind!"

To deal with the lighter side of our activities the unit won the Corps Inter-Unit Swimming Cup beating the Static M.G.'s by 14 points to 12 in a very close and exciting series of events. The high diving was particularly good and the team organized by Mr. Botelho is to be congratulated on the result of its efforts. It has just dawned on me that we are now half Static M.G.'s ourselves. Is this another conspiracy to assist the wrestling of this trophy from the Portuguese Unit?

EFFICIENCY MEDALS

This year, Sergeant S. R. Silva was awarded the Efficiency medal. A few more are coming along soon but this medal is difficult to get.

It is an extraordinary thing, but whenever His Majesty's Government decides to institute a medal, the legal department immediately drafts the regulations governing awards in such a way that very few really deserving cases can ever get one.

In this connection, I think it should be known that in taking on the responsibilities of commissioned rank Mr. Ribeiro, who had done 10 years out of the 12 required to gain the medal, willingly deprived himself of the honour in the best interests of the Unit.

We had hoped that H.E. Senor Barbosa would have been with us tonight but unfortunately this is not possible and in his stead we welcome Lt. Col. Vieira and would ask him to convey our regrets to His Excellency.

Col. Irwin has now been here for a year and has been remarkably busy altering the face of the landscape. He has not, however, been too busy to pay a good deal of attention to us and I will leave it to him to speak for himself. Brigadier Bisset has helped us a good deal in seeing to it, that in spite of the difficulties encountered this year, we have not been lacking in instructors.

COL. ANDERSON

Last year I had the pleasure of referring to the appointment of Col. Anderson as Commandant. Now on this occasion I feel no pleasure at all as I have to talk of his impending departure.

I do not think that anyone here or any member of the corps or command H.Q. could ever realise the prodigious amount of energy expended by Col. Anderson in the organization and training of the H.Q. Volunteer Corps. There never has been so much work to do, and Col. Anderson has made things go so smoothly, that newcomers could never realise the tremendous change in the Corps which has taken place.

I regard him as the missing link and hasten to add that I mean the link between regulars and volunteers which is so necessary if misunderstanding is to be avoided.

We volunteers who are keen on our work, who want to do the job practically, and not merely on paper, are ground between the upper and nether millstones of the requirements of Command Headquarters and those of our bread and butter, while at the same time our finances are very stringently controlled by the Government.

Col. Anderson has held the balance true, and in connection with finance, has done wonders to make a little go a long way.

His departure will leave a gap the authorities will find hard to fill. I for one am not looking forward to a future in which, at best, we shall have to train a new Commandant before we can settle to spending a reasonable amount of time on our civilian work, our families and the tiniest bit of personal recreation.

Still, Commandants, Adjutants, G.S.O.'s and others come and go. We go on for ever and that being so I must return to the question of the Portuguese Companies.

SATISFACTORY WORK

Taking the year as a whole I am more than satisfied with the way our work has been carried out. The spirit of the unit has been better than at any time I can remember.

I can now see one or two potential officers amongst our other ranks.

This year we have found a good number of recruits of excellent material, but if we are to man all A.A. and M.G. posts allotted to us, we must have more. I cannot imagine any sane individual living in these times who does not recognise the need for sound preparation for possible.

I myself, am going next week on leave to England and I hope that you will all give Capt. Rodrigues, who will carry on the administrative work, and Capt. Sequeira and Mr. D'Almada who will be responsible for the training of the respective units, your fullest support, and ensure that, on my return, I shall see an even greater improvement in working strength and efficiency. (Applause).

Lieut-Col. Anderson, Commandant of the Corps, said that last year His Excellency the Governor of Macao was present at the dinner. On behalf of the Corps, he asked Col. Vieira to convey to His Excellency the thanks of the Corps for his interest in the welfare and work of the Portuguese Companies.

Colonel Anderson said that they were very glad to welcome the Consul for Portugal.

He was an old friend of the Corps and had always taken a personal interest in the Portuguese Companies.

Col. Anderson paid a tribute to Major Jarvis who, he said, was always a loyal collaborator, and who had accepted to attend a training camp of his (Major Jarvis's) old regiment, the Warwickshire Regiment.

In conclusion, Colonel Anderson wished the Portuguese Companies every success. (Applause).

"OUR GUESTS"

Proposing the toast of "Our Guests," Capt. J. S. Rodrigues said: I feel very much honoured and privileged to be called upon to propose the toast of our guests.

Those present here tonight are not only our guests, but our real friends and staunch supporters, who have the interest of volunteering in general and our Company in particular, at heart.

To Major Mitchell we extend our welcome. Last year he was not with us on account of a most important event in the history of England—the Coronation of His Most Gracious Majesty King George the Sixth—and we should be very proud that he was chosen as representative of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps, especially in that he was one of the first officers in the Corps who helped and gave us our first training as Infantryman, without whose help probably the Company would not have attained the goal which it looked forward to.

We are sorry to learn that owing to indisposition Mr. J. P. Braga is unable to be with us, and hope that, before long, he will be fully recovered and be able to honour us with his company at all future celebrations. In reply to our invitation Mr. Braga sent to the Officer Commanding the Companies a cheque for $25 as a contribution to the Company fund, and on behalf of the Company, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking Mr. Braga for his continued interest in our welfare.

Last year we had the privilege to congratulate the Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada, Jr., on his appointment as a Member of the Legislative Council; and I am sure you, Sir, and members of the Portuguese Company, will join me in congratulating Mr. J. P. Braga, the Hon. Mr. D'Almada and Dr. R. A. de Castro Basto on the award of the Coronation medal, which His Most Gracious Majesty the King has been pleased to bestow on them.

We are very grateful to Col. Crewdson for the interest he has shown in our work as anti-aircraft gunners, and also for allowing us to practice on the sleeve target.

Our thanks are due to Capt. Carlsson and his staff for the facilities granted us to make the use of the Stonecutters Range for our annual Company Rifle Meeting.

We welcome Lieut. and Quartermaster Parkinson, who has taken over the duties of Capt. Westlake, and feel sure that with him at the head of the "Q" Department, we shall be as well looked after in the matter of equipment, etc., as heretofore.

Before concluding, we wish to express our thanks and gratitude to the prize donors and the various Clubs for their interests in our welfare; especially to the Committee members of the Club Lusitano for the loan of the Club hall and for their continued interest and assistance.

Replying for the guests, the Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada in a witty speech, said that the present numbers of the Portuguese Companies should be doubled, and added that there was no reason why this should not be so. He urged everybody to join the Corps. (Applause).

Colonel N. M. S. Irwin, G.S.O. (1) remarked that he was very impressed by the keenness shown by the Portuguese Companies. He also paid tribute to the Hong Kong Rifle Association for the facilities granted to volunteers.

Colonel Irwin, in conclusion stressed the value of games in Corps life.

A PRESENTATION

Addressing the gathering, the Consul for Portugal, Dr. Laborinho, said:—

First of all I wish to thank you for your kindness in inviting me to be present here tonight, not only because you give me the pleasure to enjoy your good company, which I deeply cherish, since I consider it already an old friendship of three years, but also, because I have the occasion to express my great appreciation for what you have done on behalf of the "Portuguese Refugees from Shanghai," who came to Hong Kong and Macao in a very difficult moment of their lives.

Thanks to your assistance, together with the priceless help of the "Comissão de Socorros aos Portugueses Refugiados de Shanghai," the kind collaboration of the Refugee Committee of Hong Kong, the Portuguese Community, and Associations, my official part became easy and quite unnecessary in a moment that I could not be useful by myself, without so valuable assistance, collaboration and help.

In the heart of every Portuguese refugee who came to Hong Kong and Macao, remains today, I am sure, strongly tied a delicate, fraternal feeling of gratitude, which is spread through their families, friends and countrymen. In conclusion, I request the honour to allow me to present you a silver shield of my country, a little souvenir of my gratitude.

Major Jarvis suitably replied. Guests present included Lieut-Col. Joel Vieira, Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Macao, Lieut-Col. R. C. B. Anderson, M. C. Commandant, Dr. A. Laborinho (Consul for Portugal), Brigadier F. W. L. Bisset, Colonel N. M. S. Irwin, Lieut-Col. H. B. L. Dowling, Lieut-Col. W. T. O. Crewdson, Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada, Jun., Major E. J. R. Mitchell, Capt. F. L. Rebello, Major J. Durran, Capt. S. F. Hedgecoe, Capt. A. Urquhart, Lieut-Commr. J. C. M. Grenham, H. K. N. V. P. Chev. J. M. Alves, Lieut. Buchanan, Lieut. Campbell, Paterson, Dr. R. A. de Castro Basto, Mr. Leo D'Almada, sen., Messrs. F. I. Zimmer, E. J. Figueiredo, A. C. Botelho, F. Stafford Smith, D. P. J. Lopes, T. B. Wilson, E. R. Lettao, P. S. ## JAPANESE POSITIONS BOMBED BY CHINESE

Honan And Shantung Posts Attacked

Direct Hits On Troop Train

Hankow, March 26. The Chinese air force was in action in Honan and Shantung yesterday, heavily bombing the Japanese positions on these fronts.

Chinese Aviation Headquarters announces that one squadron of Chinese planes raided the Japanese positions in the vicinity of Lin-cheng, on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway north of Hsuehowfu, yesterday morning, heavily bombing Japanese troop concentrations in order to support the Chinese forces which are counter-attacking furiously to stem the Japanese advance in the direction of Hsuehowfu.

Another squadron, circling above Chiaotao, in north Honan, sighted a Japanese troop train in the railway station. The Chinese planes scored direct hits and the pilots reported observing the troop train going up in flames.

A third squadron bombed Japanese concentrations at Fengchiu, on the north bank of the Yellow River opposite Kaiteng, inflicting heavy casualties on the Japanese troops, which were attempting to cross the river in order to cut the Lunghai Railway between Hsuehowfu and Chengchow.

The Japanese counter-attack in the Lingyi sector has failed to make much progress.

A squadron of nine Japanese bombers, and also artillery units, subjected the Chinese lines at Lingyi to a very severe bombardment yesterday, while Japanese infantry launched an offensive yesterday evening.

The fighting was especially severe on both flanks but the attacks were repulsed. Heavy fighting is still progressing.

The Chinese left wing launched an attack on the Japanese positions at Yenchowfu, and another Chinese detachment advanced on Tawenkou, engaging Japanese troops in the vicinity of Chatsiang and Chaowangho. (Reuter).

CHINESE PLANES VISIT SHANGHAI

Hankow, March 26. A message from Shanghai received here today states that a squadron of Chinese planes visited Woosung, Kiangwan and the western suburbs of Shanghai at 7 p.m. yesterday doing reconnaissance work for a considerable length of time.

Warned of the approach of the Chinese planes, many Japanese war vessels anchored in the Whangpoo River trained their searchlights to the sky trying to locate the Chinese machines but without success. (Central News).

VICTORIES FOR CHINESE

Crossing Of Yellow River Frustrated

Hankow, March 26. Severe fighting is going on around Yenchow, on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, according to dispatches here which state that the Chinese troops were everywhere successful.

Strong Chinese detachments are reported to have broken Japanese resistance on the Grand Canal and to be continuing their march on to Yenchow, the outskirts of which have already been reached.

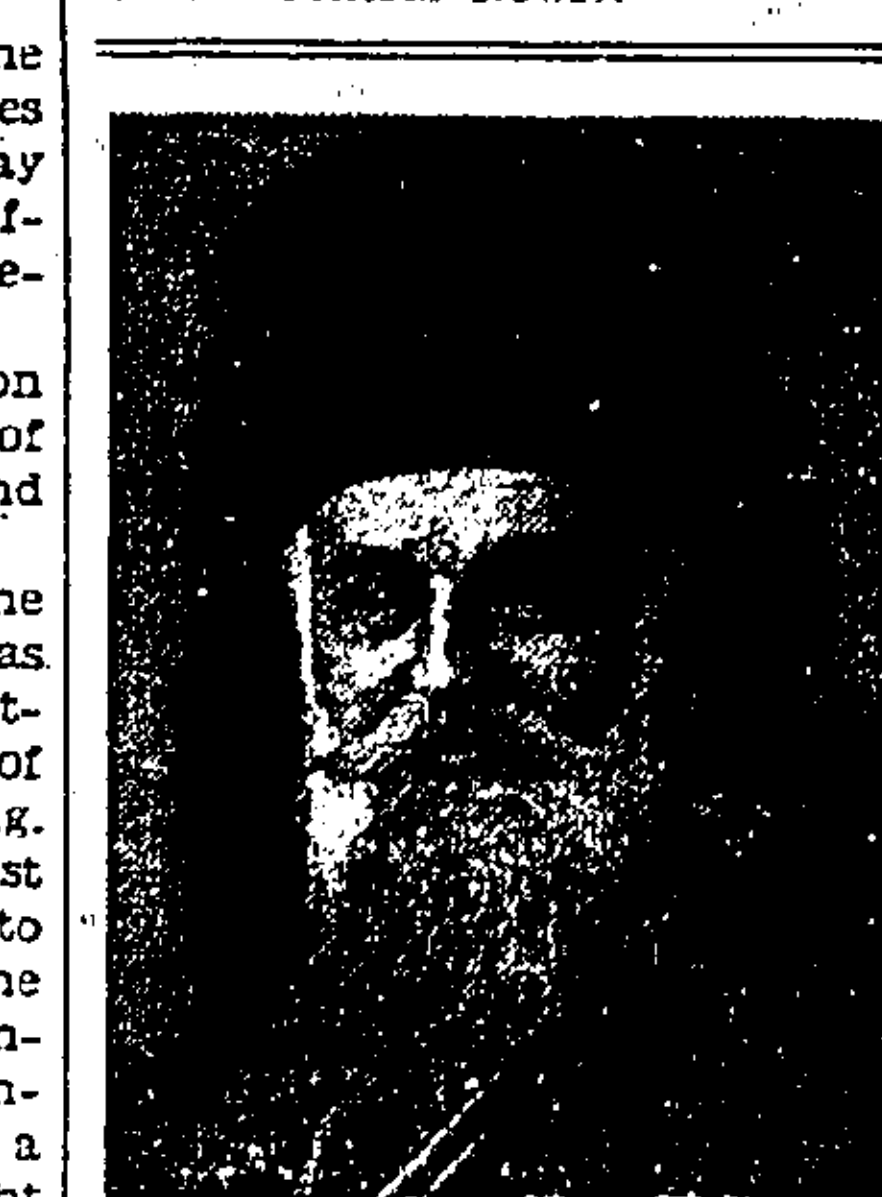

Chinese troops are also advancing from Tsowhsien, which is about 15 miles to the southeast of Yenchow, while on the other hand the Chinese have commenced a drive from the south on Hwong-chang, on the Grand Canal.

Farther north in the Lin sector, the Japanese are attacking, with the help of strong mechanised units and aeroplanes, but the Chinese are resisting with great success. (Transocean).

CROSSING FAILS

Shan, March 26. Several hundred Japanese troops, attempting to force a crossing of the Yellow River at Ho-tsun, on the Shansi-Shensi border, were repulsed by Chinese defenders early yesterday morning.

The Japanese troops made the crossing in 20 small junks. While in the middle of the stream, they were greeted by a hail of machine-gun bullets from the Chinese side. Ten boats capsized and the rest hastily returned to the opposite bank. (Central News).

RUMANIAN CABINET CRISIS

LIBERALS BACK OUT OF CRISTEA GOVERNMENT

Bucharest, March 27. An impending Rumanian government crisis is predicted here. The Liberal party, it is declared, had decided, following a lengthy deliberation, to withdraw its ministers, which action will deprive the government of five of its most important members.

It is regarded as certain that the Prime Minister, Patriarch Miron Cristea, will also resign. His successor will probably be M. Vajda-Voerod. (Transocean).

Egypt Looks To Defence

LAND AND SEA MANOEUVRES

Cairo, March 27.

A commission was yesterday appointed by the Egyptian War Minister to study the fortifications of the naval port in Malta and make recommendations to Parliament for adoption in Egypt.

Egypt is at present making the greatest efforts to safeguard her ports against air attacks.

After the combined Anglo-Egyptian land manoeuvres just terminated the General Staff of the Egyptian Army has announced joint naval coast manoeuvres in conjunction with the British Fleet.

These manoeuvres will chiefly concern Alexandria, where attempts will be made at landing.

The Egyptian state budget issued yesterday shows clearly that the country intends to spend much more in future for national defence. (Transocean).

CONSOLIDATION AIM

Tokyo, March 27. The Diet adjourned yesterday after both Houses had passed the National Mobilisation Bill without changes.

Political circles here are of the view that by the passing of the Mobilisation Bill and the entire budget totalling 8,000,000,000 yen the Diet has given the Premier, Prince Konoye, plenary powers corresponding to those of an authoritarian government.

Regarding the conflict in China, it is declared in political circles that after attainment of the military aims the Government will immediately have to prepare for the development of the occupied territories.

For this purpose, the Diet has already authorised the establishment of a China department in the Cabinet. It is thought that reorganisation of the Foreign Office will also be necessary.

NO EXTENSION
The army of occupation, it is declared, would be left in China until the new regime is firmly established.

In view of the strong concentrations in the North China and Nanking zones, it is believed that military action will not be extended further.

It is thought that additional undertakings in South China would be equivalent to dissipation of forces which might influence unfavourably the aims of the China policy. (Transocean).

GUERRILLA UNITS RAID HAINING

Shanghai, March 26. For the purpose of intensifying guerrilla warfare along the Shanghai-Hangchow Railway, and in order to aid planned counter-attacks on the Wuhu-Hangchow front, the Chinese High Command is reported to have sent three divisions across Hangchow Bay.

Reinforced by straggling troops in that sector, guerrilla units are stated to have already raided Haining, on the north bank of Hangchow Bay, near Chapoo.

Steps are being taken by the Japanese army to suppress the Chinese guerrillas. One of these steps has been a ban against the import into the occupied zones of electric torches, which it is feared may assist the guerrilla units in their operations against the Japanese. (Reuter).

JAPANESE CRUISER DAMAGED

Shanghai, March 28. A Japanese cruiser limped into the Whangpoo River yesterday with signs of serious damage.

It is believed the warship had returned from an action with the Chinese forts at Ninpo, which have recently been modernised.

The cruiser is now being repaired. (Reuter).

TOVARICH

Claudette Colbert And Boyer

At one time or another, every actress plays a maid. Usually it's her first play, when she enters left as the curtain goes up, puts the bowl of flowers on the mantel or occasional table, gives a flick to the curtain and exits right with nary a word.

But not Claudette Colbert. They waited until she was a star to put a black silk dress and a white cap and apron on her and send her around the table with the fish course.

Miss Colbert is a maid in "Tovarich", Warner Brothers new film version of the Broadway stage success. But she isn't the usual maid. She's just doing it because she was a Grand Duchess first and ran out of money and needed the caviar and champagne she was accustomed to. Charles Boyer, co-starred with her in the picture, gets a come-down, too. He appears as Miss Colbert's husband, a Russian Prince reduced to butting for a living—and caviar and champagne.

Besides the two stars, the cast of "Tovarich" which has its run at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres today, includes such notable names as Anita Louise, Basil Rathbone, Melville Cooper, Isabel Jeans, Morris Carnovsky, Montagu Love, Heather Thatcher, Maurice Murphy, Reine Riano and Victor Kilian.

The picture is based on the internationally famous stage play of the same name by Jacques Deval.

GANGSTERS AND THE SLUMS

"Dead End" Is Big Screen Hit

"Dead End" the stage play by Sidney Kingsley, he wrote "Men in White" ran for two solid successful years on Broadway, and now it comes to the screen with Sylvia Sydney and Joel McCrea in the leading roles. The film opens at the King's Theatre today.

Sylvia Sydney gives a magnificent performance as Drina, the little girl of the slums who fights a valiant but losing battle to save her small motherless brother, Tommy, from entanglement in gangster elements. Joel McCrea is Dave, a penniless young architect whom Drina loves. Wendy Barrie plays the part of a girl who has found a dubious way out of the slums into a rich apartment and who also loves Dave.

The picture has the original Dead End kids of the stage play.

"PUBLIC ENEMY'S WIFE"

Pat O'Brien And Margaret Lindsay

No more dramatic thrills ever were shown in a picture embracing the activities of G-Men than in the Warner Bros. production, "Public Enemy's Wife," which is now showing at the Majestic Theatre.

Yet the picture has a unique and unusual favour, as in addition to the exciting episodes, there is a fascinating romance between the ace G-Man and the

IMPORTANCE OF VACCINATION AND REPORT

Smallpox has broken out in Hong Kong about once in every five years since 1911-12, when many persons died of the sickness. Why is this?

Because people do not know that it is necessary that they should be revaccinated at least every five years in a place like Hong Kong, and because certain Chinese believe that a child should not be vaccinated until it has passed its second Chinese New Year.

In this way a child born just after the New is two years old before it is vaccinated, it has escaped getting small-pox up till then.

In spite of the law which lays down that children must be vaccinated within six weeks of being born, many remain unvaccinated until the so-called propitious time. Thus, there is always in Hong Kong sufficient suitable ground for the growth and development of the small-pox poison.

THREE OUT OF FIVE

In previous outbreaks of small-pox three out of five cases were hidden away from the health authorities and lived in overcrowded tenements.

Remember that one out of every four who get small-pox die and that already one thousand persons have died this year, and that those who do not die suffer from a painful sickness which may end in blindness or in scarring of the face and body.

Surely, with such a terrible sickness, it is very little to ask that houses, clothes and bedding should be made free from the germs of the illness whenever a member of the family or one of the household gets small-pox. This is a very small upset to save life and to prevent suffering.

Parents and relatives sometimes do not wish to leave their children with small-pox at the hospital. If this is not done, the child suffering from the sickness has far less chance of getting well and, in addition, the child will pass on the illness to other children in the house and any person who may enter the house.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Very little can be done in a fight against small-pox without the help and co-operation of the general public.

The health authorities are therefore appealing for the help of every person to stamp out the illness.

You can help the health authorities by:—

(1) Making sure that you and your family and servants are well protected against small-pox by vaccination.

(a) babies should be vaccinated within six weeks of birth.

(b) everyone should be re-vaccinated once every five years.

Free vaccination is carried out at all Government Hospitals and Dispensaries and by units of the St. John Ambulance Brigade.

(2) Reporting at once to the health authorities any damage caused by the disinfecting squads.

(3) Reporting at once to the health authorities or to the nearest police station if you see or hear of any person who may be sick with small-pox.

(4) Telling everyone you know that there is no charge for the use of the ambulance which carries people to hospital and that no charge is made for food or treatment at the hospital.

FRIDAY'S RETURNS

Eighteen cases of small-pox were notified during the 24 hours ended midnight Friday. Seven cases came from Victoria, and 11 from Kowloon.

Other diseases reported during the period were six cases of measles, five of cerebro-spinal meningitis, two of chicken-pox and one case of enteric fever.

SIR HENRY POLLOCK TO ENTERTAIN ROTARIANS

Sir Henry Pollock will entertain Rotarians at tomorrow's tiffin meeting at the Hong Kong Hotel with "Some Legal Anecdotes."

Woman in the title role, the wife of a public enemy, although at the time she is the ex-wife.

There is an unusually talented cast which includes Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, Robert Armstrong, Cesar Romero, Dick Foran, Joseph King, Richard Purcell and Addison Richards in the featured leads.

ROYAL WEST KENT
REGIMENT

The 1st Battalion, The Queen's Royal West Kent Regiment, which recently returned to England and took up quarters at Shorncliffe Camp after 18 years' foreign service, is to receive new Colours in May.

Lieut.-Col. P. N. Anstruther, D.S.O., M.C., at a reunion of the Shorncliffe and district branch of the regiment's Past and Present Association, said he had a letter from the Duke of Kent's secretary stating that the Duke would visit Shorncliffe on May 17 to inspect the battalion and present new Colours to it. He (Lieut.-Colonel Anstruther) suggested that at the regimental reunion on July 17 they might be able to lay up the old Colours at All Saints Church, Maidstone.

COL. TRAVERS KIRKLAND, Col. Travers Kirkland, D.S.O., who has retired in advance of the age limit of 57 (which he would have reached in July), has been in the R.A. since 1900. "Atticus," a pen-name which conceals the identity of a well-known Westminster politician, prints in his Sunday Times diary a letter which one suspects was never intended for the eyes of the many.

"Atticus" received it from Admiral Sir Lewis Bayly, a friend of Admiral Yarnell, commander of the U.S. Asiatic Fleet. Admiral Yarnell wrote:—

"The fighting in the immediate vicinity of Shanghai ended on November 13th, which eased the situation in one sense, but the city is now going through the more trying experience of gradual absorption of Japanese forces.

It is difficult to deal with people who respect no argument except the voice of guns: ultima ratio regum—the last argument of kings.

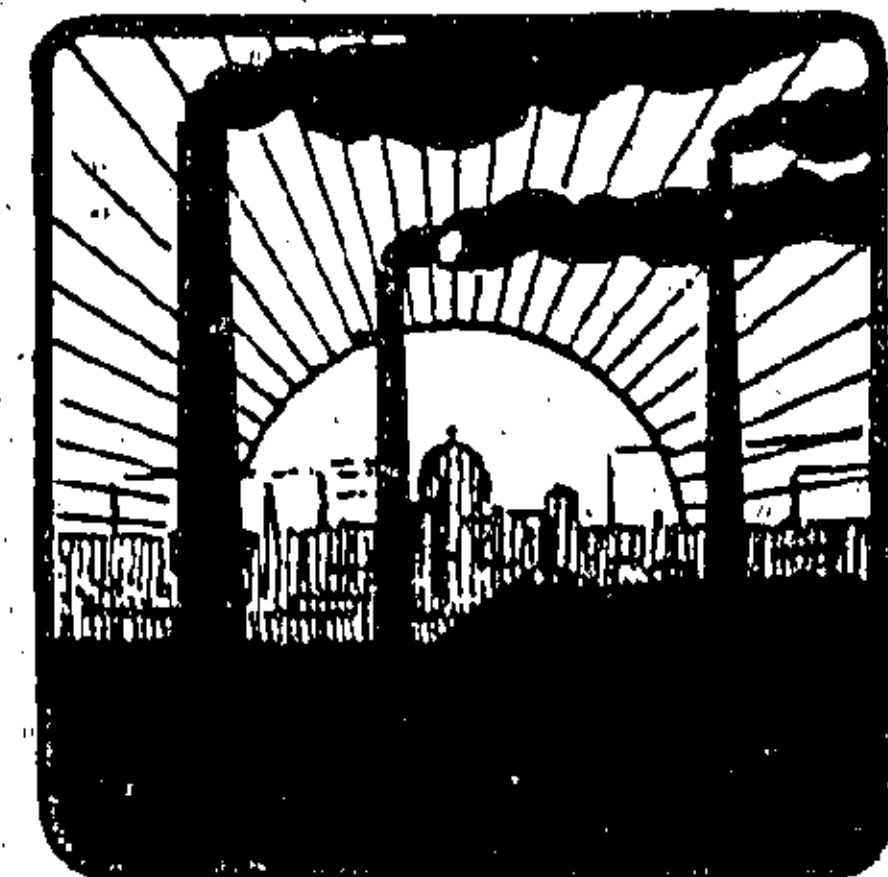

One of the few pleasant features of the Shanghai episode has been my association with Admiral Little. He is a fine officer, of rare good judgment and delightful personality.

We have worked closely together—like two kittens in a basket. There is about the British naval officer an aura of solidity and reliability which is a great comfort to those who are associated with them in times of stress.

SIR VICTOR SASSOON'S 30,000-MILE AIR TRIP

Well-Known Financier And Sportsman Leaves By Hawaiian Clipper

"You dragged me out of my bath when you rang me up last night, do you know? I hate publicity anyway. Anyhow, what can I do for you, and what do I get for it?"

The cheerful and gracious smile with which Sir Victor Sassoon, well-known millionaire baronet and race-horse owner, spoke these words when greeted by a Daily Press representative at Kai Tak Airport early Saturday morning, indicated the pleasant humour and good health he was in on his departure by the Pan-American Airways Hawaiian Clipper for an air trip in which he will travel a distance of nearly 30,000 miles before he finally sets foot in New York on May 28.

In the course of this gigantic trip, in which he is combining business with pleasure, Sir Victor will visit 27 different countries and experience all the four seasons in an incredibly short space of time.

Before he stepped in the Clipper, Sir Victor cleared up the "mystery" regarding the rumours in connection with his severing all connection with racing in Hong Kong.

"I expect to be away a year at least," he said. "Mr. Reidy is not here and there is no one to look after my stables. My uncle is not keen on taking it up, and as there was an owner who wished to purchase the string I sold it. I have a few young ponies in view, and I shall in all probability resume racing here when I return."

Sir Victor arrived at the aerodrome very early and, despite the chill and wet—the heavy rain that had begun falling at about 6 a.m.—was only just abating—was in the best of spirits, strolling around the landing ground and chatting with Mr. Phil Delany, traffic representative for China of Pan-American Airways, Captain Culbertson of the Clipper, Mr. C. R. ("Chlie") Vaughan, first officer, who "are friends of mine from the days when I used to do quite a fair amount of flying and others."

KNOWLEDGE OF FLYING

In conversation while waiting for the plane to start, Sir Victor said he expected to reach England in time for Ascot, where he hoped to stay for some time.

The genial baronet revealed an extensive knowledge of, as well as a very keen interest in, flying and commercial air lines and their working. He voiced the opinion that, reliable and speedy though Pan-Americans were, there was a certain amount of time lost in stopovers on some schedules, and he looked forward to the time when, with the new Boeing planes that are to come into service shortly, the cruising speed and range of these giant liners of the air will show an appreciable increase. He agreed that at present it was not practicable to have too long "hops."

He himself is a flyer of some experience and one of the things to which he is looking forward in South America is renewing his acquaintance with pilots like Messrs. Nelson, McCluskey and Hawick, with whom he did a lot of flying when he was there. All three are working for Pan-American Airways in those parts.

RECORD ITINERARY

Sir Victor Sassoon's itinerary, before he lands in New York, at which point he has, regretfully, to use his own words, to forsake the air and take ship for Southampton, reads like the log-book in an adventure of one of Jules Verne's heroes.

According to the schedule, Sir Victor would have landed at Manila yesterday; thence to Honolulu, where he will stay a week and where he expects to get his real rest, on to San Francisco for a day and then to Hollywood, where he has invitations from Charlie Chaplin and Ernst Lubitsch to stay with them.

"THE MEDICINE OF MAN"

Sermon Preached By
Rev. H.W. Baines

The Rev. H. W. Baines, who is shortly leaving the Colony, preached the sermon at the 11 a.m. Service at St. John's Cathedral yesterday (Mothering Sunday). The title of the sermon was "The Medicine of Man" and the Rev. Baines said:

The picture of the sick man borne by four friends and laid before Jesus in the hot courtyard in Capernaum is one of the most vivid in all the Gospels. The picture is most vivid, but not only of the events of that morning. Here is shown too the state of man. The man lying there is physically sick, but Jesus discerns too that he is spiritually sick. So, in my belief we are all in the sense that there is that within us which responds to evil stimulus and suggestion as to something akin. We are sinful, that is disposed to sin before we actually sin. That condition is a disease for which we are not responsible, a tendency which is not our fault. Jesus, himself, partook of that condition in as much as He was completely a man. But secondly there were in the past record of the sick man actual conscious sins wittingly committed for which he was and knew himself to be responsible. (Jesus knew it too). Therefore, thirdly, he was burdened with guilt. In each of these respects the man lying before Jesus is brother to ourselves, we all suffer from an original tendency to sin, but further we all sin and carry with us the knowledge of our sin and therefore the burden of our guilt. Fourthly, we share with the sick man the inevitable menace of death.

NO PARDON ASKED

The man did not ask for forgiveness. Jesus told him that that was what he needed. Then he took and accepted it, confessing his need. Over and over again we do not ask for forgiveness or recognize our need, and Jesus tells us our need quite plainly. "Repent and be baptised." St. Peter's words belong to us too. Man's medicine is forgiveness but we can have it only as we show our sincere need for it by forgiving others with the same medicine.

The parable in this story is very close to life. The man was carried by his four friends; he did not come alone. He had to make his confession alone, and receive his absolution alone, but he rejoined his friends outside the courtyard carrying back their ropes and stretcher to them.

Man's medicine means first forgiveness and secondly the church, the forgiving community, in which forgiveness works and is real. Hence again St. Peter's advice. "Repent," that is confess your need for God's forgiveness; set your affection wholly upon Him and not upon yourself; "and be baptised," that is identify yourself with the forgiving community and so be freed from the bondage of evil tendency and be strengthened against sin.

THE TRUE MEDICINE

I have said that man's true medicine is forgiveness and that it must come before all others. That does not mean that it can work without them. Education without religion is a public danger, but religion without education is no medicine: progress and development divorced from God get us into the kind of sub-human chaos that we see in today's world, but religion apart from social organization is a soul without a body, meaningless. What matters is the order and the place where you lay the emphasis. Jesus forgave the sick man, but did not then walk away and leave him lying there. He went on to restore to him physical ability and strength. There is therefore a further message than "repent and be baptised," something beyond confession and communion, and that is to make actual the heavenly medicine of forgiveness by embodying it in schools, hospitals, houses, homes, society.

Next week I hope to show how Jesus brings the living power of forgiveness right home to us because in life and in death he is truly ours.

FOUNDATION LAID

As to our Philippine Commonwealth Government, I may say that we have already laid the foundation for a nationhood. We are now focussing our attention and concentrating our efforts in the economic development of the country. Nature has endowed us with a vast wealth in natural resources and we are eminently agricultural with a great diversity of crops as well as plenty of raw materials for the various industries.

The public corporation known as the National Development Company owned by the Government and with a capital of fifty million pesos has just started undertaking its programme of industrialization. This company is the one entrusted by law to execute all the economic plans of the Philippine Government. Of course, it will take us years and years before we can attain a real self-sufficiency much in the same way as it took Japan and other countries hundreds of years before they reached their present economic position.

I can proudly say, however, that our government is financially sound and we have a balanced budget. At present we have a five-year programme of road construction, sanitation and instruction particularly in Mindanao and Sulu which are important integral parts of the Philippines.

THE ROAD TO PROGRESS

His Excellency, the President of the Philippines has created councils, boards and companies which re-invigorated and re-vitalized all other agencies for the proper and adequate material development of our country. He has laid ample provisions for the protection and conservation of our rich natural resources for the benefit of this and the succeeding generations. He has endeavoured to elevate the standard of living of our masses and to provide for their securities. Besides these, the President of the Philippines has inaugurated a comprehensive programme of large scale development of the erstwhile virgin region of Mindanao. He has solidified our political situation, encouraged trade and commerce, given new life to agriculture, awakened industries, mobilized men and means and afforded new opportunities for the enhancement of the material welfare of the general populace. In one word, he has endeavoured to establish a well-rounded national life, securely able to withstand the ten-year transition period and calculated to outlast any change of administration in the government. Thus, through the wise and able leadership of His Excellency, the President of the Philippines, our country is well-nigh on the road to progress, prosperity and happiness.

FOREIGN INVESTMENTS

Gentlemen, taking advantage of this occasion, it is seemingly fitting and convenient for me to call your attention to the opportunities offered in the Philippines. We welcome foreign investments in our country and we are ready to protect them. In the Philippines, you have a wide field for business commercial and industrial enterprises which no doubt will give you a reasonable return. You need not have any fear or premonition, for my government is ready and willing to provide protection for your business and to safeguard your interests. We have now in Manila a number of foreign capitalists who have shown confidence and faith in our government and thus have invested millions of pesos in agriculture, mining, commerce and industries. We have, for example the Hon. John W. Hausermann, an American, and Mr. Andres Soriano, a Spaniard, and many others. All these men have invested heavily in the Philippines and therefore are now enjoying a big volume of business there.

I am glad of the presence of Mr. A. E. Prats here tonight. He is a leading broker in the Philippines and is associated with the most conservative as well as the most prominent group of financiers in the Philippines. He is associated with Judge Hausermann, and the Hon. Alberto Barretto, the former Secretary of the department of Finance.

Mr. Prats is one of the prominent and progressive brokers in Manila and represents the Hausermann Consolidated Investments and I am sure he can furnish you detailed information on the business conditions in the Philippines.

In closing, let us all wish for the best for this community and the

Given Option Of Fine For Larceny Of Goods

The case in which four men were charged with larceny and receiving goods stolen from the Dairy Farm Company's Kowloon branch was continued before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday.

First accused, Chan Lai-chuen, former clerk of the Dairy Farm, was represented by Mr. C. D'Almada. Mr. W. A. Mackinlay appeared on behalf of the Dairy Farm Company.

Chan, it was alleged, stole the goods from the company's branch on Nathan Road while he was employed there and instructed the remaining accused to dispose of them.

Mr. D'Almada asked His Worship to be lenient to the first accused who had five children, two of whom being at school in Singapore.

EDUCATE SONS

Mr. D'Almada went on to say that the boys had written to their father requesting money for the entrance fee to their senior examinations. It cost the defendant $10 to $15 a month to educate his boys there. Defendant was drawing $38, which was hardly sufficient for him to maintain his family.

His Worship, in reviewing the case, stated that the crime had been very carefully planned and that in view of the defendant's surrounding circumstances he would give him the option of a fine of $150 or in default three months in prison.

The second and third accused were fined $20 or one month, and the fourth, $100 or ten weeks.

All the goods recovered were ordered to be returned to the Dairy Farm Company.

Philippines. Let us finally hope that we will continue as heretofore the fostering of our material and spiritual relationship for our mutual benefit. (Applause).

THE TIDE IS TURNING

The Sino-Japanese war has opened the eyes of the world to a highly important and significant fact.

China's potential greatness has always been recognised. Her vast terrain containing unlimited supplies of practically every known variety of mineral, her gigantic man power, her wealth of raw materials and forests—all these things have made her, even in her weak and undeveloped state, the envy of many nations. Japan in particular. The present war, however, has proved what people had refused to believe in the past, namely, that the Chinese soldier, where all things are equal, is as courageous and clever a fighter as that of any other nation. The greatest disillusionment has come to the Japanese. If the strength —military as well as moral—that China is displaying is astonishing Europe, it is driving Japan to despair.

For eight months the despised, ill-equipped Chinese armies have been giving the Japanese the greatest lesson in warfare that they ever had in their history and slowly the tide of battle is turning in favour of the defenders.
As this journal has always steadfastly maintained it will.

A million and a half well-drilled,
smart-uniformed, dapper, Nipponese troops, equipped with the latest implements of war that the skill of man has fashioned, have so far failed in every strategic move they have made. Territory has been gained but to what purpose? It will soon hang like a millstone about the necks of the invaders. What the Chinese soldier has lacked on the parade ground he makes up for in bravery. He may not be a goose-stepping spit and polish warrior in shining armour, but he is a simple and stout fighter.

Japan's refusal to admit this truth has been responsible for her chaotic plight in China today.

JAPAN HAS NO CASE IN ASIA

Sunday, March 27, 1938.

It is now some six and a half years since Japanese officials, diplomats, businessmen, journalists and plain propagandists first attempted to present Japan's case in Asia, but the ineptitude of the majority of these writers and speakers has been so extraordinary, and their statements so rash, provocative and open to question that between them they have succeeded in convincing the world in general that Japan has no case at all.

To the Japanese themselves this may appear to be a rather harsh statement but the truth of it cannot be doubted when one compares the general world attitude towards Japan today and in 1931, more particularly so when one reads reports of the reception certain unofficial Japanese spokesmen won for themselves in America's public debating halls and in European market places.

The Japanese have made too lavish use of dark colours in painting pictures of the Chinese, and too little willingness, of course on the part of the Japanese, to admit that they themselves have sometimes been guilty of making mistakes.

There is not the slightest doubt that public opinion in the Occident in the main now presents a united front in condemning Japan's undeclared war against China. As a result of this the Japanese press has been quick to seize every opportunity to depict the majority of the Western powers as being associated in a conspiracy not only to assist China at the expense of Japan but also in some indirect way to bring about the downfall of Japan herself.

Japan had a few friends before she embarked on the present campaign. There are still some Western powers who declare that their friendship with her has not been affected by the trend of events, but the sincerity of these statements is doubtful. In any case it is impossible for even the best of Japan's friends to defend her as long as this press campaign of calumny and vituperation is in progress.
For the accusations the Japanese press are making are so obviously composed of a tissue of falsehoods.

We have, of course, long since been used to this from the Japanese but it is nevertheless annoying to read of statements that are concocted with the idea of misleading the world. It is an insult to one's intelligence for the Japanese to even dare to hope that these statements will be read and "swallowed" as the gospel truth.

In a country where everybody claims to be almost super-human, it is surprising that they are so easily led—or perhaps misled would be the more appropriate word—by a handful of militarists determined to have their own way, cost what it may.

The Japanese people have followed blindly and it is costing them more dearly than they would care to admit—even to themselves. In the early stages of the war it was only their internal trade which suffered but as their ruthless murder of innocent civilians continued world opinion became shocked to such an extent that slowly but surely the will to regard Japan as an outcast from the civilised world made itself felt.

Today opinion against Japan is so bitter that her foreign trade is greatly affected and if Japan is to regain this loss, even in a small measure, her only way to do so would be to cease immediately her present campaign and return, unconditionally, to China what is rightfully hers.

China, it has been stated time and time again, will fight to the bitter end. Why should she not do so when she has justice on her side? China never wanted this war. It was forced upon her at a time when all the country's resources were concentrated on putting her own house in order—fighting the Communist menace, stamping out the drug traffic that Japan so cleverly introduced into the country, and improving the roads and communications throughout the country.
China took it quietly when Japan walked in and pegged her claim in Manchuria. Japan thought that history would repeat itself and that it only required a few shots, fired at random, for her to annex a further slice of North China. But here Japan erred. Rather than suffer any more indignity, China put aside all plans of rehabilitation and reconstruction and took up arms to repel the invader, and much to the latter's surprise she is making a thoroughly good job of it.

China's forces today are better organised and better equipped than at the outset of the present hostilities, and, if Japan found it difficult then to "beat China to her knees," her job is ten times more difficult today. For well-nigh nine months now China has been fighting as one against a neighbour who, from time immemorial, has cast covetous eyes on the mainland.

Under the inspiring leadership of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, China is going from strength to strength and reports from the various fronts received daily tell us that, so far from making any progress, Japan's forces in China are finding it most difficult to hold what little territory they managed to take in the early stages of the war.

China is reaping the reward for her gallant perseverance and, at the present rate, it would appear that all the victory marches and show of military might on the part of Japan would prove to be so much empty boast. China is to have the final say. What answer then will the Japanese militarists have for the civilian population of Japan—the people who suffered most and the people to whom the Imperial Generals and Admirals promised a short war and a new empire?

The fact is that Japan is too proud to admit it—the inherent Nipponese pride or "superiority complex" which is driving them upon swift wings to the proverbial fall.
Under-estimation of China's fighting strength, the ability of her strategists and the quality of her soldiers by the Tokyo High Command is the secret of Japan's failure.

Tokyo had always held the view that one Japanese division was sufficient to defeat the whole of the Chinese army, because the Chinese generals knew nought of co-operation, they were jealous of each other, they would not go to each other's help and all Japan had to do was to eliminate them piecemeal.

It is apparent that when the present war broke out Tokyo had not changed that view. That is borne out by the Japanese strategy. At the outbreak of hostilities Japan had four divisions of troops handy. A month later these had been increased to eight divisions, and three months later, i.e. in November the number had been augmented to twelve divisions.

On the other hand, a rapid and heavy rush of troops into the interior, without wasting three months at Shanghai, might have turned the scales in Japan's favour in a very short time if only by taking the Chinese armies unprepared and giving them no opportunity to mobilise and consolidate. Japan's conceit defeated that hope and the chance will never come again. Only a third of the Japanese standing army is fighting in China, but he probability of sending further reinforcements is ruled out by the

WEEKLY MUSICAL REVIEW

(BY "ALLEGRO MODERATO")

The whole town is talking about the "Old Time Music Hall" and what a grand show it was. We were impressed, not so much by the excellence of the show but by the spirit which carried away audience and artists. The medium making this possible of course was the Chairman, good old Bob Henderson, not to mention his "mallet," which he uses with force and "WIGOUR," and his "Glass which is eternally empty."

Our contemporaries have touched upon the artists and the programme in general. We agree with them all. Might we suggest that if there should be another such an event in the entertainment line that we have a little more of variety and at least the vocal items be alternated with some other "turns."

We were quite impressed with "Zeno," he has a striking appearance and his ease and delivery denote an artist. We liked his rope tricks, very much and his razor stunt still has us flabbergasted.

The amateurs who endeavoured to get by the Chairman's hook gave us a delightful interlude.
There was a man who did "Ain't you Bill," and "Franky and Johnny" like any "pro" would. The three "manias" who came on to do a trio tied us up in little knots.
And the man came on looking like "Izzy" and who called himself
"Molphy," made us fairly weep.

H.E. the Governor was there with a party on the second night. Perhaps it was his dignified presence, but we thought the artists, each and every one, gave of his or her best.

To review what we heard last week, let us start with the weekend. The ZBW programmes were rather good, we thought. "Madam Butterfly" during lunch time Sunday helped us digest a delightful meal, and the St. Joseph's Choir was quite up to scratch on same evening.

We have heard them do better though. The balance seems a little out this time. The female voices are a little overpowering.

Yehudi Menuhin and the London Symphony Orchestra were a treat and so were the trio and the quintette.

We hear from very reliable sources that there will be another orchestral concert at the Peninsula Hotel, to be given by the Royal Scots. This of course is subject to confirmation. We shall give more details later.

Some time ago, there was mention of Opera being produced and played by amateurs in Hong Kong.
We have it that this will definitely be done next "Musical Season" The Choir in question is still recruiting members.

We hear that we have pulled a bigger one some time ago. We mentioned in our first article that a certain trio composed of violin and cello and piano was accompanied by the piano. This is not the case. The three instruments play together.
We take back all we said.

At the present moment we have not heard the week-end broadcasts yet, we shall touch upon them in our next article.

As regards coming ZBW fare we can recommend:—

Tschalkowsky—Piano Concerto
No. 1 in B Flat Minor Op.23 played fessor Ori, same day, 8.30 p.m.;

lowed by Bach at 9.50 and 10.35

you are "Unfortunate" as one of our colleagues said, "to be a highbrow," then, we are very much afraid that you will enjoy the entire programme.

NEW JAPANESE OFFICIALS

Tokyo, March 28.

The following appointments in the Japanese Diplomatic Service were announced today:

Baron Makoto Tomii, Counsellor
to the Japanese Embassy in London, becomes Minister at Ottawa.
Mr. Kenichi Okada is appointed Minister to South Africa.
Captain Shinichi Torigoshi is appointed naval attaché to the Japanese Legation in Siam.—(Reuter).

Russian menace of which Tokyo is ever conscious.

The general mobilisation will enhance Japan's striking power as well as her staying power at home, but that will be amply countered
when China's own vast recruitation, and development schemes, proceeding unostentatiously from one end of the country to the other, gradually come to fruition.

The military situation at the moment should give the Tokyo War Office greater concern than it has experienced since the beginning of the war. Latest developments confirm hopes of major Chinese counter offensives being sustained on all fronts. The threat to Esuchow has been removed and the Japanese operations in South Shantung have completely collapsed. The exceptionally heavy Japanese losses will mean that that threat is not likely to materialise for some time. The most heartening feature of the fighting is the valuable assistance being given by the reorganised Chinese air force of which a good deal more will be heard in due course.

TRANSACTIONS IN FOREIGN EXCHANGE

Rigid State Control In Japan

Tokyo, March 27. Rigid State control of all bank transactions in foreign exchange was announced here today by the Ministry of Finance.

The new decree, which is similar to the recent Hankow regulations, comes into force on April 5.

It stipulates that special permits have to be secured from the Ministry of Finance for the following transactions:

1. Sale and purchase of foreign exchange in Japan;
2. Sale of yen abroad;
3. Remittance of funds to foreign countries;
4. Payment of interest on loans secured abroad;
5. Issue of letters of credit.

The decree will eventually be extended to Japan's outlying possessions, also Kwangtung leased territory and Manchukuo.

Simultaneously, the Finance Ministry announced the creation of foreign exchange inspection section with 15 inspectors to supervise foreign exchange transaction.

The new decree, Mr. Ishiwatari, Vice-Minister of Finance, told the press, "seeks to prevent unnecessary competition between foreign exchange banks and to ensure stability in the market."

Revision of former rules, the Vice-Minister of Finance added, was necessitated by the "recent exchange transactions and general situation in the exchange market."

The decree should cause no inconvenience to banking because of the simplicity of the procedure prescribed, Mr. Ishiwatari concluded.—(Reuters)

JAPANESE GENDARME SHOT IN LEG

HONGKEW AREA CLOSED

Shanghai, March 27. All entrances and exits to the Japanese occupied Hongkew area were closed last night following an incident in which a Japanese gendarme was shot in the leg. He was not seriously wounded.

It appears that a military truck was passing in Hongkew and knocked down a pedestrian.

A Japanese naval sentry ordered the car to halt, but the truck ignored the sentry who thereupon fired two shots. It is believed that one of the shots accidentally hit the gendarme.

The area was immediately closed as a precautionary measure, and was opened again half an hour later.

The matter is at present under investigation by the Japanese military authorities.—(Reuters)

The Hong Kong Inter-School Sports will take place at Caroline Hill on Tuesday (news) and Friday (finals) at 2 p.m. on each day. The Diocesan Boys' School, Central British School, St. Joseph's College, King's College, La Salle College, St. Paul's College, Queen's College, St. Stephen's College and Wah Yan College will take part. Mr. G. R. Sayer (Director of Education), will give away the prizes.

SUNDAY RIFLE SHOOT Attendance Record Broken

SJT. V. W. COOPER GETS TEN "BULLS" IN SUCCESSION

At the fourth Sunday shoot which took place yesterday morning on the Army Ranges at Kowloon City the attendance easily surpassed all previous records, being between 160 and 170, and as a result, it was found necessary to alter the Conditions of Shooting in order to ensure that the various competitions could be completed in the time allotted. Apart from the matter of the record attendance, the feature of the shoot was the very fine possible—10 "bulls" in succession—made by Sjt. V. W. Cooper of the 1st Bn. The Middlesex Regiment, at 200 yards.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found an account of the presentation which was made to the founder and retiring Honorary Secretary of the Association, while below we give a list of the winners of the one hundred prizes specially awarded by Major Steers to those who shot for them concurrently with the Spoon Shoot.

Individual full membership, as Major Steers pointed out in his speech, continues to grow apace, so much so that yesterday it stood at 737, as against 388 on the first day of 1938, while the total number of members enrolled in less than three years, in 1935.

Copies of the Programme of the forthcoming Prize Meeting have been circulated to all units and clubs, and if any member desires to receive a copy, he should apply at once (preferably by telephone) to the new Honorary Secretary, Major G. P. Murray, Garrison Adjutant's Office, Command Headquarters, (Telephone 54121, extension 67).

The leading scores made yesterday morning and the prize-winners were as follows:

After weeks of tranquillity, an undercurrent of excitement was again evidenced throughout the city during the week-end as the result of a further crop of rumours, all of which were without foundation.

Early in the afternoon it was reported that martial law would be enforced at 6 p.m. for precautionary reasons but the military authorities subsequently decided that the situation did not call for such drastic steps and the city is now normal.

It is significant, however, that exceptionally widespread, aerial operations took place in Kwangtung today when several groups of Japanese planes roared across Canton, drawing pom-pom fire but the anti-aircraft batteries were silent.

Semi-official sources state that over thirty planes participated in the raid, the objectives being mainly the Canton-Hankow Railway and also Kongmoon, Whampoa, Bocca Tigris and Salyuan. Nearer home seven bombs were dropped on the countryside to the north of Canton particularly close to a party of foreigners who were in the vicinity. The damage, however, is alleged to be very slight.—(Reuters)

Major D. H. Steers

be our honorary secretary. This gathering is a proof that he has more than fulfilled our expectations and hopes. It was a happy thought of the Council and Major Murray to make this morning's shoot the occasion to express our thanks to Major Steers.

ASSOCIATION FORMED

In June 1935 this Association came into being with Major Steers as its honorary secretary. As the last year-book tells you there are now 660 full members and 7,500 affiliated members.

We are more than delighted that his work for the Association and the Colony has received the public acknowledgement by a Cabinet Minister and by the London Times. These ranges have been his recreation ground. I believe that he has attended every shoot and meeting the Association has held.

Our Clubhouse stands as a permanent reminder of Major Steers' devotion to the Association. It is no exaggeration that, but for him, the Clubhouse would not be an accomplished fact today. And it is a Clubhouse, comfortably furnished and, above all, free from debt. We all trust that the form of our gift has taken will serve to recall old friends and happy memories of Hong Kong. It is a gift from all.

We know Major Steers that your interest in this Association will continue long after you have left Hong Kong. In fact, I have been told you have already initiated plans for a Hong Kong team to compete at the next Bisley Meeting. We say goodbye with keen regret, but with the conviction that your work and ability will speedily command advancement and recognition wherever you may be.

We ask you to accept this "Little Silver Home from the East" as a reminder of our deep appreciation and thanks for the wonderfully successful work you have carried through, and also as a token of our hearty wishes for success and good luck in the future. (Applause).

MAJOR STEERS REPLIES

In acknowledging the gift Major Steers said:—
Gentlemen:—I feel sure that you will understand me when I say that while this occasion, and in particular the kind words which have been used as regards my effort to encourage rifle-shooting in this Colony, fill me with very real pride, yet that feeling is, by no means untinted with sadness at having to leave what has certainly been a labour of love.

It is now almost exactly 2½ years since this Association was formed, and you will be profoundly surprised to hear that I am going to say nothing about Sunday shooting, for the simple reason that I regard the battle as good as won. I know what a difference this will make to the non-Regular members.

Apart, however, altogether from the matter of range accommodation, we have found ourselves, as an Association, faced with many vicissitudes since our inception and particularly during the last twelve months when the disturbed situation in the north resulted in the absence from this Colony of the 2nd Bn. The Royal Welch Fusiliers, and the 1st Bn. The Royal Ulster Rifles, two of our main pillars of support, nor did the disturbance stop there, for the China Fleet was, not unnaturally, similarly affected, as were the various auxiliary branches of the Army, stationed here.

But you all know what has happened during the present rifle-shooting season—how the 2nd Bn. The Royal Scots and the 1st Bn. The Middlesex Regiment, have each produced over 200 individual full members, with the result that this class of membership stands today at over 700.

As the London "Times" stated in its issue for March 7, last, "the Hong Kong Rifle Association now has a bigger membership than any other such organisation in the Empire."

NO DISTINCTIONS

From the start, it has been an understood thing that this Association would recognise neither creed nor race, and I am happy to think that that is the case today; the one, and only qualification, which the Council insists upon, is that all our members shall owe allegiance to the British Crown.

I now come to the matter of this wonderful present which you have given me. I know well, and realise to the full, the kindly thought and generosity which lie behind it.

The "double" on Battleship, winner of the Grand National, and Barbadeche, winner of the Bickerstaffe Plate, returned £5,062 for their shillings.

CORRESPONDENCE

AERIAL WARFARE APPEAL

[The Editor, Hong Kong Daily Press]

Dear Sir,—A correspondent, A.D.G., called attention in last Saturday's paper to the Renter report of the Pope's appeal concerning aerial warfare in Spain. He referred to the sentences: "The Pope also pointed out the atrocities suffered by Catholic priests and churches." It is stated that twenty-six priests were killed when the insurgents entered Teruel, and, as these sentences came immediately after the account of the Pope's appeal to General Franco, he quelled the implication that it was the Nationalist army which was responsible for the murder of the priests.

The matter was made quite clear in last Thursday's broadcast from the Vatican, City station, in the usual daily news bulletin, 11.30-11.45 p.m., Hong Kong time. This stated that the Pope appealed for humanity in the conduct of the war in Spain, and that he referred to the deaths of civilians in the recent insurgent air raids and to the recent atrocities committed against priests by the Government troops in Teruel.

There was no ambiguity in the Papal message, but of course all agree with A.D.G. that an impartial news agency would not deliberately word the report in such a way as to give a wrong impression.—Yours etc.

ONE FINAL REQUEST

I have one final request to make. My successor, whom I am conscious you will find far more conciliatory than I, have ever been, is taking over my job at a difficult time, with units and ships away from the Colony. Do please give him that support which you have given me, and remember that the arrangement even of Spoon-Shoot, and particularly the compilation of the Programmes of the competitions held at the annual "Services" and "Bisley" Prize Meetings, means many hours of work beforehand.

From my experience at these Meetings in the last three years, I have judged it necessary to remind him that while such things as "elbow-pads" are allowed by Regulations at the "Bisley" Meeting, it is his duty to refuse sternly to permit anything like a spring-mattress on the firing-point, however hard the latter may be!

I think you, Sir, most sincerely for the kind words which you have spoken about my efforts, and I would like to point out that none of these would have had any effect, or result, had it not been for the loyalty of the members of this Association, many of whom I hope to see at future Imperial Meetings at Bisley.

Once again, let me thank you, thanked Mr. Chung for his good one and, all. Good-luck to you, work.

And now before we depart for lunch I wish to ask Mr. King to present this little gift (a silver ash-tray) to Mr. Chung Pui Sun, who has served us most faithfully during his connection with us. His work is not by any means finished when the last shot is fired, and often it carries him far into the night to get the scores and particulars for the Press (Applause).

In presenting the gift Mr. King, thanked Mr. Chung for his good one and, all. Good-luck to you, work.

RAIN RESPONSIBLE FOR ROUGH GOING AT HAPPY VALLEY RACE MEETING

MR. LIANG RIDES THREE WINNERS
AND THREE PLACESCourting Eve "Burns Up" Track
But Is Beaten

The second extra meeting of the Hong Kong Jockey Club at Happy Valley on Saturday was, on the whole, a disappointing affair, dividends and finishes not being high enough or of an exciting nature enough to compensate for the dismal conditions prevailing for the best part of the afternoon.

In comparison to the crowds attending the annual carnival and the first extra meeting a fortnight ago, the number of people at the course on Saturday was very small and cash sweeps never reached a higher prize than $2,300, except in the last race, the $2 event.

Mr. S. C. Liang had a very good day, getting three firsts, one second, and two thirds in six out-ings, while Mr. L. Dunbar was the most successful owner, with two firsts out of two starts.

There was nothing of very great interest in the racing, except in the Broken Hill Handicap, when Courting Eve, with Mr. H. C. Pih, was "burned up" the track, only to be caught by Mr. Liang on Double Finesse. It was due to this pace-setting by Mr. Liang's pony that the very fast time, on that course, of 1:01.2 was returned.

Valorous (Swatow Handicap) and Golden Cow (Kongmoon Handicap) paid $46.80 for the Daily Double, 155 people naming the combination correctly.

COOLGARDIE HANDICAP. The opening event indicated at once that very heavy going would be encountered in the course of the afternoon.

Bredon, starting favourite, found the course not to its liking and Mr. Proulx could not bring his mount home even for a place.

The field was strung out till rounding the bend, when Lucky Lad began moving up fast and at the Public Stand it began a close fight with The Buffer (Mr. Raymond). Lucky Lad, which was ridden by Mr. Ralph, had more left, however, and got home by a length and a half.

Colorado Star, (Mr. Proulx) was third, two lengths behind.

CANTON HANDICAP. Honeymoon Eve (Mr. H. C. Pih) was beaten into third place by Confusion Bay (Mr. Black) and New Star (Mr. Raymond) in this race.

Mr. Lau's new acquisition started well enough but fell off towards the end and had to fight hard for a place.

Confusion Bay and New Star jumped away from the rest at the Public Stand, closely followed by Honeymoon Eve and King's Coronation. Passing the Press Box the bay put its neck in front and stayed there.

ST. KILDA HANDICAP. Although she unseated her rider, Mr. "Benny" Proulx, and dashed through the paddock into the lawn and up to the gate to the Public Stand before being caught, Twilight Star finished in a great burst to take second place in this event.

A European lady had a narrow escape from being knocked flying. Twilight Star missing her by only inches in its run over the lawn. Brutus, on which Mr. Raymond rode a fine race, won by half a length, with the same distance between Discovery Bay (Mr. S. C. Liang) and Twilight Star. The win paid $43.60.

SUB-GRIFFINS SPRING HANDICAP

Desert Star, joint favourite with Louis XIV in this race, disappointed supporters by not even placing. There was little of interest here, the field stringing out from the Black Rock.

At the distance post Louis XIV (Mr. Liang up) and Rose Evelyn (Mr. Tao) gradually drew away from the others, and the former got home by five lengths. Three lengths separated Salvage Master (Mr. Black) from Rose Evelyn.

SWATOW HANDICAP

This novices' event saw the first real favourite's win when Valorous, ridden by Mr. C. L. Gregory, won comfortably from Plain View (Mr. Ip).

Election Time, with Mr. David Sprackley up, fought hard for second place, but was beaten by a short head into third place, to pay backers $32.10.

BROKEN HILL HANDICAP

Courting Eve, (Mr. H. C. Pih) went off at an electrifying pace as the tapes shot up, and leapt into a lead of three lengths. It kept this till the bend, when Double Finesse (Mr. Liang) began closing up the gap fast. In the meantime, Mr. Proulx on Lancashire Chips and Mr. Encarnacao on Election were also moving up, but it was obvious it was between the first two.

Flank to flank Double Finesse and Courting Eve swept down the straight, but the latter had little in reserve and Mr. Liang got his mount in front by a short head. It was a fine race, won in 1:01.2, which was very good considering the going.

KONGMOON HANDICAP

The rain came pouring down about now, and conditions became most unpleasant.

Mr. Raymond on Fel Ying rode an excellently-judged race on Fel Ying. Shut in at the start he gradually worked his way out, and, timing his spurt nicely, did very well to place second.

Mr. S. C. Liang on Golden Cow fulfilled expectations, winning comfortably by a length and a half. Charybdis (Mr. Encarnacao) was a good third.

WUCHOW HANDICAP

The most disappointing dividends of the day were paid on this race. Humdrum Eve (Mr. Pih) Just In Time (Mr. Liang) and Lancashire Lass (Mr. K. Y. Ip) did as expected, finishing in that order.

FATSHAN HANDICAP

It "cleared up" in this, the last event, that is, the rain stopped, but the course had become a quagmire and the ponies raised chunks of turf at every step.

Mr. Donald Black sprung a surprise here, bringing Boolat Bay home to pay fair dividends of $30.90 and $18.30.

Amberley (Mr. Y. T. Fung) fought hard at the end, but was ousted by a short head Laughing Girl (Mr. S. C. Liang) placed third, by a length and a half. The $2 sweep was the only one of the day that netted a prize of over $2300.

SOUTH CHINA'S NARROW WIN OVER M'SEX

Defence Carries Team In Senior Shield Game

South China "A" were given a great fight in their Senior Shield match against the Middlesex on Saturday, and only came through winners because their defence struck some of their finest form this season.

As it was, if Watson had not made a fatal mistake and sent the ball into his own goal, anything might have happened. Fung King-cheung was, as usual, a tower of strength and it was he who scored the other goal, to give the Chinese the game by 2-1. Pearson scored for the Middlesex.

The Junior Shield match between the Royal Navy and Ordnance had to be abandoned after 65 minutes' play, with the score reading 1-1.

Results and goal-scorers follow:—

RAIN SPOILS FINE GAME ON THE CLUB GROUND

Craigengower On Top When Play Is Stopped

By F. Mela

CRAIGENGOWER C.C. 119

INDIAN R.C. 2 wks. for 14

That was the position when the game between these two clubs, on the Hong Kong Cricket Club ground on Saturday, was abandoned. The two teams were playing off for senior cricket League honours and on the run of play Craigengower Cricket Club were a trifle unlucky as the Clerk of the Weather robbed them of what promised to be a very good chance of winning the Shield.

On the other hand it must be remembered that, owing to the wetness of the ground, the bowlers could not grip the ball properly and the result might well have gone in favour of the Indians despite the fact that they had lost two of their best bats for a meagre 14 runs.

A. R. Minu, the I.R.C. skipper, won the toss and elected to field. Craigengower starting their innings disastrously when Minu bowled F. K. Lee with one that kept very low before any runs had been scored.

After this, however, a different complexion was put on the game by Ernie Zimmern and A. R. H. Esmail who played stolidly to add 55 runs before Zimmern had the misfortune to play-on to A. R. Kitchell.

Zimmern played a capital knock—it was a real captain's innings and though he started shakily, he soon settled down to play very correct cricket to score 21 runs.

SOME NICE SHOTS

Harry Esmail brought off one or two very nice shots in the course of his innings (he made 29), one off Minu in particular being very good: a hook to the boundary. Apart from these two, however, the rest of the batsmen were not impressive and the team totalled 119 runs. George Souza made 18 but his innings was patchy. He got out to a full toss, hitting the ball tamely to Minu at mid-off.

RUMJAHN NOT BOWLED

Minu changed his bowling more frequently than I have seen him do, but my opinion was that he put on the wrong bowler at the wrong time.

Arthur Rumjahn, who in my opinion is still one of the brainiest bowlers in the Colony today, was not given a bowl. In fact I do not remember Arthur being bowled at all this season. When Ernie Zimmern and Esmail put up a stand a couple of overs from Rumjahn might have had the desired effect.

FIELDING GOOD

Minu himself bowled well but A. R. Abbas's figures of 3 for 13 in 8.1 overs rather flattered him. A. H. Madar was on the short side and young A. R. Kitchell deserved a better fate than 1 for 19. He was mixing them well and was never afraid to pitch them well up. The fielding of both sides was good though K. Nazarin and A. R. Kitchell appeared to be too anxious.

VERY POOR LIGHT

When the Indians went out to bat the light was so bad that I expected the batsmen to appeal against it at any minute. Francis Zimmern opened the bowling for Craigengower from the Naval Yard end but he was all over the place. It was beginning to drizzle by this time and as the game progressed the drizzle became heavier.

F. J. Billimoria, bowling from the Law Courts end, immediately found a spot and he kept pegging away at it. He bowled Nazarin with one which, if it had been a inch lower, might be termed a "subterranean" ball.

It gave the batsman no chance but the ball he bowled Kitchell with was a beauty—it would have got anybody, was the opinion I formed.

STEADY ISMAIL

Meanwhile S. A. Ismail was batting very confidently and he never looked like getting out. He sent Francis Zimmern to the ping twice—the second shot being a perfectly timed one to the fine-leg boundary.

A. H. Madar batted a few minutes and by this time it was raining so heavily that the umpires decided to call a stop.

I hear that it was decided to abandon the game and it now rests with the Cricket League Committee to decide whether to have another play-off or to call the Indian Recreation Club and Craigengower Cricket Club joint champions for the season.

BIG BADMINTON PROGRAMME

INTER-SERVICES TABLE TENNIS LEAGUE

ORGANIZATION AND RULES

As foreshadowed in this paper on Wednesday last, an Inter-Services Table Tennis League has been formed. Service units only (including volunteers) serving in the Colony will be permitted to enter. The league has been formed under the auspices of the 'Cheero Club' and all matches will be played at the 'Cheero Club' twice a week.

Two Honorary Secretaries have been elected. They are Sapper L. Bateman of Wellington Barracks to represent Hong Kong and Aircraftman J. Harris of Royal Air Force Station, Kai Tak, to represent Kowloon.

Prizes will be awarded to winning teams, in the shape of either a silver cup or shield of a size appropriate to the amount of money received. It is expected that prizes are to be presented by the Commanding Officers of winning teams.

The League comes into force on Monday, March 28th and has been given official approval.

RULES

It is believed that it will grow into an organization of keen interest throughout the Colony. Below are given full rules and particulars of the league:—

All service teams are eligible for entry. Units may not draw upon others for players.

Teams will enter 8 players, 8 of whom will form the team. Names of each team should be handed to the area representatives every Monday.

Non service players cannot be entered for a game, except when a service player inadvertently leaves the Colony or is indisposed, when one week's notice of substitution must be given.

A charge of 60 cents per team per game will be enforced to cover cost of prizes.

All games will be played at the 'Cheero Club' on Tuesday and Sunday nights.

Each late player will be fined 10 cents per game.

Teams failing to produce at least 4 players will forfeit the game to their opponents.

Each team will appoint a scorer, who is conversant with the rules of the game.

Only singles will be played:—21 up.

Opponents will be selected by drawing immediately prior to the game.

SOUTHERN SHIELD FOR SAINTS' LADIES

Only Goal Of Match

Decides Issue

Fine forward work under trying conditions won the day for St. Andrew's Ladies in their Caer Clark Cup match with Hong Kong Ladies to decide who should hold the Southern Shield.

Their victory was by the only goal of the match, scored by Miss Phyllis Gittins from a fine pass to centre by Miss Eva Churn.

The following were the teams:—St. Andrew's Ladies:—Miss J. Hall; Miss G. White and Miss J. Broadbridge; Miss P. Lawson, Miss J. Wong and Miss H. Read; Miss F. Wong, Miss E. Churn, Miss P. Gittins, Miss S. Roberts, and Miss M. Churn.

H.K. Ladies:—Mrs. Lunson; Miss G. Swan and Miss B. Hebling; Miss K. Glover, Miss B. Pope and Miss O. Green; Mrs. Waddell, Miss Burton, Mr. M. Smalley, Mrs. H. Prophet and Miss A. Purves.

As a practice for their final game against the "Rest", "Y" Ladies, Caer Clark Cup champions, engaged H.M.S. Grampus in a friendly match on the C.B.A. ground yesterday, and, though the naval team did not go all out, the Ladies acquitted themselves well, and shared two goals.

In a Brawn Cup encounter Recrelo Ladies were surprised by Central British Schoolgirls "B" team, and went down by the odd goal in three.

(C.B.A.); Miss B. Pope (H.K.L.); Miss J. Wong (Saints); Miss F. Wong (Saints); Miss E. Churn (Saints); Mrs. M. White (C.B.A.); Miss P. Gittins (Saints); Miss D. Hunt (C.B.A.).

Colours: Miss D. Moss (C.B.A.); Miss B. Parsons (C.B.A.); Miss E. Chang (Saints); Miss O. Green (H.K.L.); Miss H. Read (Saints); Miss V. Gordon-Smith (H.K.L.); Miss F. Beat (C.B.A.); Miss W. Waddell (H.K.L.); Miss M. Smalley (H.K.L.); Mrs. M. Daniels (C.B.A.); Miss A. Purvis (H.K.L.); Miss E. Clewer (C.B.A.).

Shield Football

SOUTH CHINA "B" SCORE SEVEN AGAINST NAVY

Chan Tak-fai On the Mark

South China "B" outclassed the Navy in the semi-final of the Senior Shield on the Club ground yesterday and won by seven goals to one. The ground was slippery.

From the start the Chinese took up the offensive and before ten minutes had elapsed, Lee Shek-yau netted the first goal. An effort by the Navy forwards followed soon after this but the attempt was frustrated by the alertness of Tam Kwan-kon who gathered up the ball and cleared as Sutherland was about to shoot.

Soon after Lee Shek-yau took a long shot and the ball hit the the cross bar, and from rebound Yeuk Hon-woo scored. Chan Tak-fai netted shortly before half-time.

Five minutes after the resumption, Chan Tak-fai scored the fourth goal with a fast drive. The Navy forwards lacked combination, and shot wide. Yeuk Hon-woo increased the score again and this was followed by another goal by Chan Tak-fai.

It was not until Chan Tak-fai scored the seventh goal that the Navy's efforts were finally rewarded when Sutherland netted the only goal.

Mr. G. Finch refereed and the teams were:—
NAVY:—Pepper, Bassington, Marriot, Cairns, Swales, Robinson, Perkins, Sutherland, Aitken, Kyle, Page.

SOUTH CHINA "B":—Tam Kwan-kon, Tay Kwee-leong, Lau Mau, Leung Yin-chen, Lam Tak-mau, Lee Kam-hing, Yeung Shui-yick, Yeuk Hon-woo, Chan Tak-fai, Lau Chung-sang, Lee Shek-yau.

KWONG WAH WINS

Kwong Wah entered the final of the Junior Shield when they defeated the Portuguese Sporting Association by the odd goal in five in the semi-final played on the Kowloon Football Club ground yesterday afternoon.

At half-time, Kwong Wah led by two goals to nil. In the second half the Portuguese levelled the scores and in the closing minutes Kwong Wah netted the necessary goal for victory.
